Don Young (Chairman of the Committee) presiding. Statement Of Hon. Don Young, A U.S. Representative From Alaska; And Chairman, Committee On Resources The Chairman. The committee will come to order. Good morning. I would like to welcome all of you to this hearing on the implementation of the Endangered Species Act. Many of you may be wondering why we are holding more hearings on the ESA after this committee has already ordered a bill reported that would re-authorize and amend the current ESA. It is the responsibility of this committee to continue to oversee this important law, and our work is not done. This committee did a great job in 1995 of listening to the people throughout this country. Over 25 hearings were held. We heard their concerns, their complaints, and their praise of the ESA; however, there are still issues left unresolved. The purpose of this hearing and more hearings to come is to continue to keep a watchful eye over the Federal agencies that many complain has been more willing to punish our citizens than to praise them for owning and properly maintaining their property that is habitat for wildlife. I want to stress that to the agencies themselves. We want a law and a government that recognizes that the true way to protect wildlife and plants is to increase their value to every citizen, including those who provide them with the food...
