It's the three-day induction treatment given at the first round of chemotherapy along with ARA-C, to jump start the chemo. It looks harmless enough but, I've got a few nicknames of my own for it! It was January 2nd 1984. God, how did I get here! As I lay there in my hospital bed, nurses were busy getting me ready for my first induction treatment. As the needle found its vein, my mind drifted back to the moment when I came face to face with my mortality. Five days ago. . . December 28th 1983, the events of that day would be the beginning of a physical, mental, and spiritual fight that I certainly was not ready for. It didn't matter what I thought or wanted. My life and future was out of my hands. So Doc, when can I get back home? My family is waiting and were planning our Florida vacation. Why all of the long faces I looked around the room, studying everyone for...
