Girl Alone

By Anne Austin

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 86 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.2in. Excerpt: . . . of whose shame she was a living witness. But I guess I showed him! she told herself fiercely as she dabbed fresh brown powder on her tear-streaked face. He wont dare bother me again. But he did dare. He was a nonchalant, smiling, insolent figure, leaning on his cane, as she went through the next performance. She pretended not to see him, but never for a moment, as she well knew, did his cold black eyes waver from their ironic but admiring contemplation of her enchanting little figure in purple satin trousers and green jacket. And at the late afternoon performance-four oclock-he was there again, his fine, cruel, humorous mouth smiling at his own folly. She thought of appealing to Gus, the barker, to forbid him admission to the tent, but she knew Gus was too good a business man to heed such a wasteful request. Besides, the barker seemed to like him, or at least to like immensely the bill which invariably passed hands when the showman and the glorified rube met. Then suddenly, at ten minutes after four, the New Yorker ceased...
