Excerpt from Election Laws of the State of Montana 1921 2. The people of the State have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves, as a free, sovereign and independent State, and to alter and abolish their constitution and form of government, whenever they may deem it necessary to their safety and happiness, provided such change be not repugnant to the constitution of the United States. 5. All elections shall be free and open, and no power civil or military, shall at any time interfere to prevent the free exercise of the right of suffrage. Article IX. As amended by Chapter 1, Laws 1913, known as Woman's Suffrage Amendment, approved at election November, 1914. Section 1. All elections by the people shall be by ballot. Section 2. Every person of the age of twenty-one years or over, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all general elections and for all officers that now are, or hereafter may be, elective by the people and upon all questions which may be submitted to the vote...
