Blackstone Audiobooks, United States, 2015. CD-Audio. Book Condition: New. Unabridged. 145 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New. This genre-bending collection proves that not only is Karin Slaughter one of the best crime novelists in America (Washington Post), she s one of today s very best writers period. From the hallucinatory noir novella Go Deep to the twisted short stories Necessary Women and Remmy Rothstein Toes the Line, this collection showcases the New York Times bestselling author s dark humor, limitless imagination, and masterly command of voice and character. Go Deep Growing up dirt poor, Charlie Lam worked his ass off to make something of himself, no thanks to his deadbeat father or his long-suffering mother. And now a lot of people depend on Charlie: by his last count, sixty-eight employees at his Atlanta auto dealership, eleven shiftless brothers and sisters, an ungrateful wife, a spoiled daughter, and a shameless girlfriend. Who could really blame him for wanting a little extra? The arrangement is simple: Charlie picks up a suit from the dry cleaner s. In the suit pocket is the name of a very important man. The next day, that man walks into the dealership, drives out in a new car, and Charlie gets a fat envelope full of cash. Everyone s happy. No one gets hurt so long as Charlie doesn t cross his business partner. But with one twist of the knife, the unthinkable happens, and suddenly Charlie is in deeper trouble than he could have possibly imagined. Necessary Women In a border town between Georgia and Alabama, in a three-room house made of cement block, a fourteen-year-old girl watches her mother die. Her father is a long-haul trucker, away for weeks, sometimes months, at a time. Her mother, with two menial jobs cleaning restrooms and working nights at...
