Not illustrated. 1869 Excerpt: .those parts, and labour to alienate the minds of our subjects from their true obedience, under color of religion; although we are not a little grieved to find that your fields are so ill sown that, instead of corn, you reap a harvest of chaff and tares. You have not deceived our trust, neither have you shamed the father of whom you are the son, but shown that you have both confidence and sufficiency to do your Sovereign service. Promise yourself full assurance both of protection and acceptation in all your commendable proceedings. With marginal note by Sec. Cecil, My own Thomas, thou hast well begun to follow father s steps, that I cannot restrain my pen to tell you that so good beginning renders me secure of lasting success, and wish that this year s health may follow your loyal endeavours.
