The athletic interests are very strong, though we are more successful in baseball than in football, having won the championship of the Middle West, in the former, many times. University affairs contribute largely to the college spirit; every spring the Music school gives a festival lasting about three days, and offering such attractions as Madame SchumanHeink. Probably the prettiest affair is the annual May-pole dance given by the gymnasium girls in fancy costumes. On this occasion the Senior girls first don their caps and gowns and take part in the procession. The dances are given at sunset, with the background of trees, and the carpet of green turf, contributing to the beauty of the scene. The circus given by the Men s Athletic Association, at the end of inter-scholastic week, is a very amusing and many interesting discoveries in natural history are then brought...
