Oh, Archie was strong; quite strong enough for that, if only his aunt and Liliias thought so; and maybe they might, if John would speak to them about it. And so it was arranged; and when John went back to college and the Gordon boys went home, Archie found himself at David Graham s side, under the firm and not ungentle rule of the Dunmoor parish schoolmaster. Liliias joy was scarcely less than his own; and the delight of welcoming him home at night quite repaid her for his absence during the day. As for her, she began again the business of teaching with wonderful cheerfulness, and went on with wonderful success. Mrs. Blair s...
