Difference Press, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Is It Time to Find Meaningful Work That s Right for You and Your Family? Are you the one who decided to stay home when your children needed extra support? Did you compromise your professional goals in order to have the more flexible schedule? Did you stick with the higher-paying job you didn t really want so your partner could pursue their passions? In other words, are you beginning to wonder when it will be your turn to do what you were meant to do? In this short, no-nonsense guide, Ivy-League educated author and lawyer Caroline Greene boldly shares how she went from the top of her law school class to the floor of her family s kitchen, while the man she married rose through the ranks to become a successful partner at a national firm. Unashamed of her husband s success or her family s choices, Caroline shares practical tools and thoughtful insights she gained on her journey to finding meaningful work that was right for her and her family. Caroline s refreshing honesty, captivating story and powerful insight into what well-educated mom s actually need makes this a must-read for any mother who is ready to truly matter. Inside you ll find tool to help you: Discover what you really want, Create connections that count, Overcome common obstacles, Craft your ideal job description and more. Caroline Greene s Matter is like a homecoming for every mother who has felt isolated, worried about whether she s doing the right thing for her family, for her children and for her own life, who has felt guilt or shame or confusion trying to live up to the impossibility...
